REQUIREMENTS

Rates are based on camera ready copy. This means the ad conforms to the size specifications shown and it requires no changes. Ads requiring additional preparation will be billed to the advertiser.

Arrangements can be made to do graphic design and layout from your sketch. For best results, describe specifically what you want. Please allow time for design and layout preparation and proof copy.

Electronic submissions are accepted. I use a personal computer and can access many file types; a detailed list is posted on the BSN web site: blacksheepnewsletter.net

Please call or email if you have any questions about sending your ad copy electronically.

Along with ad copy include instructions explaining when you want the ad run, what size your ad is and full payment. The frequency discount applies when the total amount due is included for the first issue the ad will be run.

BLACK SHEEP NEWSLETTER

Established in 1974, the Black Sheep Newsletter has approximately 600 domestic and 30 international subscribers, with an additional fifty to one hundred issues distributed each quarter through stores and promotional efforts. The Newsletter attracts a specific market: growers of sheep and other fiber animals, handspinners and craftspeople. Advertising has been successful for many related businesses.

The Black Sheep Newsletter has an informal format and encourages the exchange of ideas and information between growers and consumers.
